

WORKSHOP THEME 2

MARINE TECHNOLOGIES, JOBS AND TRAINING

15th of November

D. Maria Hall | 9h30 – 13h00

The consolidation of a strong blue economy brings about the need to improve the correspondence between available skills and labour market demand. Changes induced by the implementation of new technologies in traditional sectors, together with the emergence of novel activities and business in many areas, entail the need for promoting new skills and leveraging the capacities of those who work in the maritime economy.
